

Week ahead

Week beginning 2/3/26

The children were once again actively involved in their learning this week. Their mood monster paintings were fabulous.

Next week we will be starting a Spring theme, we will be looking at what changes happen in Spring. Our garden is starting to come back to life after the Winter weather. We will be looking at how the bulbs that we planted last Autumn have grown. We will also be creating some flowers of our own.

Please remember to bring books and games back on Monday morning ahead

Drop Off and Collection.

To help foster the children's independence we kindly ask that children walk into and out of the nursery on foot. Please leave any scooters or buggies outside the nursery gate before walking down the path. Younger siblings are obviously still welcome in their buggies or prams! Thank you so much for your cooperation—we really appreciate it!

Any questions please ask at the beginning or end of the session.
